CHRISTINE'S CHATTERBOX

HAPPY NEW ROTARY YEAR 2019-2020

Hello everyone

This is my final "CHATTERBOX" and it seems rather sad but with a tinge of relief. Our last meeting was rather a quiet affair with so many away, but never the less we got to share some great ideas for the incoming New Year.

John and Graeme braved the cold and wet on a miserable Saturday selling the great Community Raffle Tickets. Thank you

May I take this opportunity to say a huge thank you to all club members, partners and our friends of Rotary who have given me the wonderful support as your President for the last five months, you have all been amazing showing what true Rotarians can do "YOU" have been THE INSPIRATION, and tirelessly shown "SERVICE ABOVE SELF" congratulations to you all.

Looking forward to seeing you all Thursday
Have a great week stay warm
Christine Anderson
Immediate Past President

Welcome to Allan's Air Space

Quote: "Well the Queen is dead Long Live the King" (and I am not referring to Elvis)!!!!!!

I am very honoured to be the 57th President of the Rotary Club of Fern Tree Gully, and look forward to working with you all for the next twelve months. At our meeting after changeover, when all members will be back, we will diarise our activities for the year to embrace this year's Rotary theme "Rotary Connects the World."

Yours in Rotary
Allan Tierney
President 2019-2020

"That Was The Week That Was"

Thursday, 27th June 2019

No scribe's report for last week as it was committee meetings with a small intimate group.

World Environment Day where Fairhills Interact cleaned up local creek.

Some Independence Day Humour

There was one little boy in the teacher's class who really struggled to learn.

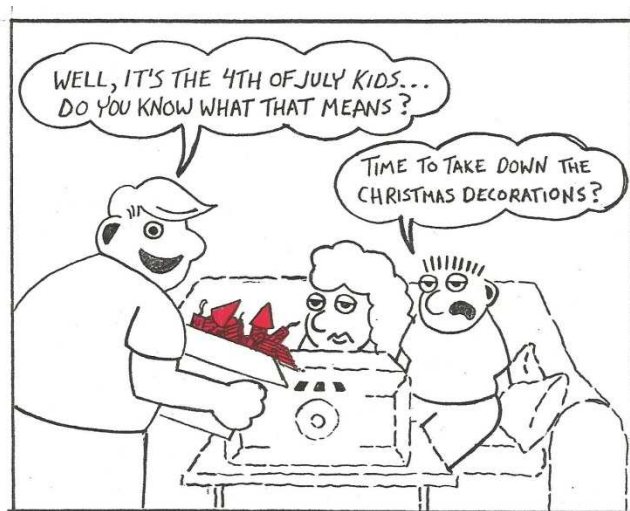

One day the teacher asked him who signed the Declaration of Independence, and of course he didn't know.

The teacher asked him every day for a week but still he couldn't give the right answer.

Finally, in desperation, she called the boy's father to come and see her. She said to him, "Your boy won't tell me who signed the Declaration of Independence."

The father said to his son, "Come here, boy, and sit down."

The boy duly did as he was told and then his dad said to him, "Now if you signed that stupid thing, just admit it so we can get out of here."

Independence Day was approaching and the teacher took the opportunity to teach her class all about patriotism.

She said to them, "You know, we live in a great country. And one of the best things about it is that we are all free."

At this, a little boy marched up to her from the back of the class, put his hands on his hips and said angrily, "I'm not free. I'm four."

"EXIT LAUGHING" at STAGEWORX in Bayswater

A fellowship evening planned for Friday 26th July – Cost $22 pp

The plot in brief: 4 old friends played cards on a regular basis and when one of them dies Millie steals the urn containing her ashes and brings it to the game completing the foursome. Rachel Ann is angry at being "stood up" and Policeman Bobby (the stripper) turns out to be her cancelled date.

We can 10 attendees at this stage – please let Marg Hurst asap know if you wish to attend
