ROTARY CONNECTS THE WORLD

MARCH IS WATER AND SANITATION MONTH

Hello everyone

And yet another exciting fun week in the life of a FTG Rotarian.

Wednesday evening at the FTG Bendigo Bank Community bowls night, our team came out on top, despite heavy rain during the second half, both players and spectator's had a really fun evening, don't forget we have to cheer our team on again this Wednesday 6.00pm Boronia Bowling Club.

On Sunday seven of us enjoyed a great afternoon at the Royal Hotel listening and toe tapping to the Melbourne Jazz Band. Thank you Mike for arranging the afternoon.

Last week's board meeting, we covered a lot of ground including planning for the next few weeks, thank you for all members' participation.

This week's meeting(Thursday) we are joining Boronia Inner Wheel for a joint meeting, the guest speaker is Warren Sparrow from Angel Flight Australia. This will be a great evening, and all proceeds from the evening will be donated to Angel Flight.

As we aren't having a meeting this week, just a couple of reminders:

- Friday 13th Bunnings Sausage Sizzle
- Saturday 14 March Shine on Recognition Awards 12pm
- Saturday 14th March 4pm - 8 pm Relay for Life (we are cooking the sausages and hamburgers)
- Sunday 15th March 6.00 am - 10 am Relay for Life cooking breakfast
- Tuesday 17th March Athenaeum Theatre Lilydale 7.30 for 8.00 PM "The Full Monty"
Dinner prior details will be emailed to everyone.

So a very busy week for all. Enjoy your week see you along the way.

"That Was The Week That Was"

Thursday 5th March 2020

The meeting last week was a combined Board and Committee meeting, our scribe, Secretary Fran has not yet completed the quite extensive minutes of the meeting. Given the effort both Fran & Brian put in at the Knox Festival they took some well-deserved R&R over the long weekend. The report will be included in next week's bulletin.

In the meantime – see below some pictures of the weeks activities by club members.
