ROTARY CONNECTS THE WORLD

MAY IS ROTARY YOUTH SERVICE MONTH

Hello Everyone

A great cocktail party and hearing Julianne's interesting entertaining life story last Thursday. Thank you Julianne for a great talk.

As I write this, I am hoping everyone sent photos to Marg as a picture tells a thousand words.

As we are fast approaching the end of this Rotary Year, Rob has secured three individual interesting guest speakers, also we will be having our last board meeting, and we have two more fellowship meetings.

A suggestion for our last fellowship meeting a virtual Murder Mystery Party.

Do you like the idea? If anyone has other suggestions please let us know this coming week so we can slot it in to our programme.

Upcoming Rotary Events (All Virtual)

District Assembly for all members to be held over the week (depending what session/sessions you are booked into) from May 24th until May 30th.

District Changeover Saturday 20th June. Everyone will be invited and if you haven't been to a District Changeover before now is your chance, at the conclusion of handing over from DG Shia Smart to DGE Alma Reynolds, all clusters will have a short meeting where the PDG and DG will drop in. So, a very different Changeover but will still be very meaningful and fun.

Don't forget to have your travel photos ready for our Arm Chair Travel Show this Thursday.

Have a good week, maybe you can catch up with family and friends at long last.

Until Thursday
Stay safe

Allan Tierney
President 2019/2020

Cocktail Party

Great to see everyone getting in the "spirit" for our ISO Cocktail Party last week.

Mike must have thought that he was on a Pacific Island somewhere, perhaps wishful thinking! Allan and Christine with a well-stocked cocktail bar. Unfortunately, we had a blank screen for Kay & Paul, was that only pearls that you were wearing Kay? Julianne happy celebrating 5 o'clock somewhere whilst giving us a summary of the person behind the badge. Celeb alert - we were even "joined" by Patsy, who loves a party. We note that there were some members with formal attire wearing their bow ties.
