ROTARY CONNECTS THE WORLD

JUNE IS ROTARY FELLOWSHIP MONTH

Hello Everyone

Thank you to you all for your contribution to last week's open board meeting. Despite being in semi lockdown we still have plenty of plans open for discussion moving into the future.

Thank you Julianne for arranging a dinner booking for us all this coming Wednesday 10th, it will be great to catch up face to face. Good company, good food and wine we do it well.

Thank you to those of you who have sent me your reports for the Annual Report and also all the photos it has made my PA very happy.!!!

PS for those that haven't.

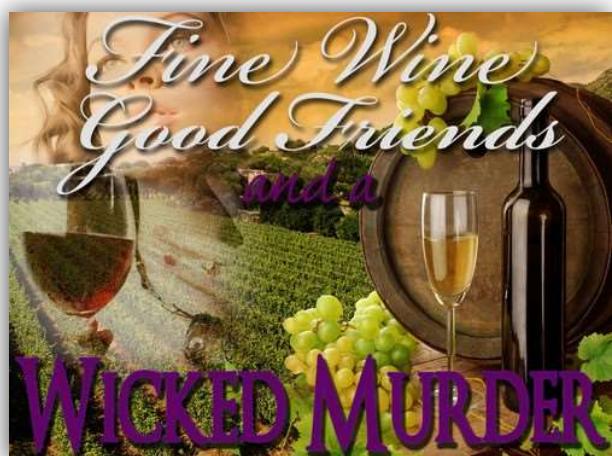

Our Guest Speaker on June 11th is Allison Troth from Destiny Rescue Australia. I encourage everyone to attend as this will pull on your heart strings, talking about rescuing the young from a horrific life of forced slavery.

Our fellowship meeting 18th June is "Two Truths and a Lie" – so have your statements ready. Don't forget the admission fee is a piece of warm clothing which Christine will collect from your door on the Friday 19th, she will also be delivering the Murder Mystery characters info pack in your letter box, so you can prepare for our Final Fellowship evening this Rotary Year.

Until Thursday

Stay safe and keep warm

Report from President -elect Graeme regarding Rotary in the new year:-

- Face to face meetings – the board room at the Bowling Club is not large enough to comply with the social distancing requirements.
- Zoom meetings to continue if not all comfortable with face to face
- District is to form a small group to develop a questionnaire to get the feelings on returning to meeting in person.
