THE WEEK THAT WAS

Thursday 3rd September, 2020

Some highlights from the Club Assembly:

Community

- Ferntree Gully News want an article about what Rotary has been doing during lockdown
Christine has drafted an article and requested photos to accompany it
- 200 – 250 gifts have been prepared for Father's Day – see below
- Community project – Christine canvassed ideas for a local community project
- Members and partners are to complete a form for the voluntary hours spent this Rotary year (from 1st July) on Rotary projects. Form to be emailed.

Centenary Project

- Discussions held on type of memorial
- FTG Quarry seemed to get the consensus of opinion for the location

After a request from Fran, it was agreed to change the meeting start time to 7.00 pm whilst we are conducting Zoom meetings.

REMEMBER WHEN????

Who remembers what we were doing this time last year? (Actually, who remembers what they did yesterday???)

- On 29th August, for our fellowship night we had a Mystery Destination dinner at FONZIE'S DINER in Kilsyth.
- On 19th September we visited the Tiny Bear Distillery for a Vocational visit, where we learnt that Gin starts out as Vodka!

I seem to be missing three bulletins from September last year – oh, that would be because we were away in Bali at our daughter's wedding. Oh, those were the days when we could travel, even to an overseas destination.

Just for Fun

Eventually, everyone will be quarantined to their houses with no sports to watch... and in 9 months from now a boom of babies will be born... and we will call them Coronials.
